

Development of IT-infrastructure is spurred

EU commission has decided to support broad band connections and countryside reorganization by 1,02 milliard euros including 25 million euros for Finland in order to resuscitate economy. Finnish Government has accounted for the same purpose 66 million euros.