

M.D. Anne Kallio for the development manager

Chief physician Anne Kallio has been chosen as the development manager in the Ministry of Social Affairs and Health. The development manager is tasked to develop and direct social and healthcare data management and the implementation of national services supporting them.

Anne Kallio is an ENT doctor and has worked within specialised care. Last ten years she has worked within the regional EPR-project in the South East Finland, national ePrescription and national eArchive projects.