

LÄHIKUVA Close Up

3 • 1995 • SPECIAL NORDIC ISSUE

LÄHIKUVA is a quarterly magazine specializing on the study of audiovisual culture and an open forum for writers interested in the research of this field

Publishers

Lähikuva-society
Finnish Society for Cinema Studies
Turku Film Society
Cinema and TV Studies at the University of Turku
The Film Centre of Southwestern Finland

Editors

Issue editor:

Anu Koivunen akuivu@utu.fi

Editor in Chief:

Ari Honka-Hallila (921)2327 484, arihon@utu.fi

Assistant editor:

Mervi Pantti (90)443 301, merpan@utu.fi

Editorial Board

Henry Bacon	bacon@cc.helsinki.fi
Veijo Hietala	vhietala@utu.fi
Hanna Kangasniemi	hanna.kangasniemi@csc.fi
Martti Lahti	martti-lahti@uiowa.edu
Kimmo Laine	kimlaine@utu.fi
Iiris Ruoho	iiru@uta.fi
Hannu Salmi	hansalmi@utu.fi
Jukka Sihvonen	jukkasih@utu.fi

Subscriptions, Changes of Address, Finances

Erja Mäki-Iso, (921)251 1998, fax (921)251 1980

Layout Ykä Similä/my way

Cover Photo Ryysyrannan Jooseppi, SEA

Editorial Address

Lähikuva
Pl 20, 20111 Turku

Printed by Grafia Oy, Turku

Preface and acknowledgements.....3

Astrid Söderbergh-Widding

Eidölon/Imago. Some Reflections on the Film Image.....4

Jukka Sihvonen

Technobody Metamorphoses16

Trond Lundemo

Decomposition of Movement and the Photogram; the Conception of the Photogram in the Work of Marey, Vertov, Eisenstein and Godard.....30

Martti Lahti

"Gosh, what's the world coming to next!"
– the Sonic Spectacle and Early Sound Cinema.....49

Palle Schanz Lauridsen

Defining a New Media. The Discourse on and Technology of Sound Film in Denmark and the USA, 1923-1930.....62

Bo Florin

Camouflaged technique. Optical transitions in the films of Victor Sjöström.....71

Erik Hedling

Shopkeepers, profiteers, and libertines.
Thatcherism in British films of the 1980s84

Debate

Veijo Hietala

The Real Thing?– The Hauntings of Realism in Contemporary Media Theory93